List of all material Aspects identified in the process for defining report content.
Direct economic value generated and distributed.
Number of countries where the organization operates, and names of countries with either major operations or that are specifically relevant to the sustainability issues covered in the report.
Energy consumption within the organization.
Process for communicating critical concerns to the highest governance body.
Process for defining the report content and the Aspect Boundaries; How the organization has implemented the Reporting Principles for Defining Report Content.
Location of organization's headquarters.
Aspect Boundary for each Aspect outside of the organization.
Highest governance body
Average hours of training per year per employee by gender, and by employee category.
Significant changes from previous reporting periods in the Scope and Aspect Boundaries.
Internal and external mechanisms for seeking advice on ethical and lawful behavior, and matters related to organizational integrity, such as helplines or advice lines.
Report of the Reporting Cycle (such as annual, biennial).
List of entities included in the organization's consolidated financial systems or equivalent documents; reports of any entity included in the organization's consolidated financial systems or equivalent documents is not covered by the report.
Basis for identification and selection of stakeholders with whom to engage.
Approaches to stakeholder engagement, including frequency of engagement by type and by stakeholder group.
Reduction of greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions.
Process for consultation between stakeholders and the highest governance body on economic, environmental, and social topics.
Coverage of the organization's defined benefit plan obligations.
Nomination and selection process for the highest governance body and its committees, and the criteria used for nominating and selecting highest governance members.
Composition of governance bodies and breakdown of employees per employee category according to gender, age group, minority group membership, and other indicators of diversity.
Process for delegating authority for economic, environmental and social topics from the highest governance body to senior executives and other employees.
Contact point for questions regarding the report and its contents.
NOX, SOX, and other significant air emissions.
Primary brands, products, and/or services.
This report contains Standard Disclosures from the GRI Sustainability Reporting Guidelines G-4
Whether and how the precautionary approach or principle is addressed by the organization.
Energy indirect greenhouse gas (GHG) emissions (Scope 2).
Date of most recent previous report (if any).
Communication and training on anti-corruption policies and procedures.
Significant changes during the reporting period regarding size, structure, or ownership.
Effect of any restatements of information provided in previous reports, and the reasons for such restatements.
Significant financial assistance received from government.
Operations and suppliers identified as having significant risk for incidents of child labor, and measures taken to contribute to the effective abolition of child labor.
Forced and Compulsory Labor
Child Labor
Training and Education
Products and Services
Effluents and Waste
Economic Performance
Ethics and Integrity
Human Rights
Social: Labor Practices & Decent Work
Social: Public Life
Social: Political Life
Social: Society
Financial Governance
Social Environmental Economic
Strategic and Analytical
GRI Sustainability Report Index G-4*